

PASSPORT

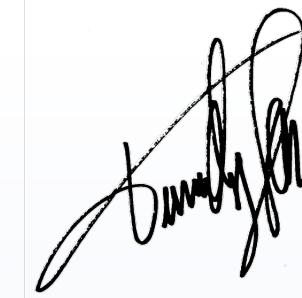

Module 2

"Round Up"

PASSPORT

Aim

Round up
Writing

LOGO

<<JUKHJKDDGUILKJ>JDKJGJ><KJGKHJKDKJFHGH>>GJKJKLJ<<<<<<<<<
D787509FFMG09897863486387348989FJNGLFGK<<<<<<<<<<<<<

Phrasal verb of the class

GET ACROSS

explain something clearly

Example:

The teacher could not get the lesson across the students.

- She is a very clear communicator and always gets her point across effectively.
- Are you sure you're getting across the tone you want in your writing?
- Unfortunately, our message didn't get across to the public as we had hoped.
- She was getting increasingly frustrated because she couldn't get her point across.

Warm up

Writing

Writing:

A story

Linking words/phrases:

Time	before, before long, when, as soon as, just as, the moment that, while, as, during, in the meantime, immediately, after, afterwards, after that, later, some time later, soon, then, next, in the beginning, at first, in the end, finally, eventually, at last, until, by the time
Concession - Contrast	although, even though, in spite of, despite, however, no matter how/what, whatever, but, while, whereas, nevertheless, regardless of
Result - Consequence	so... that, such... that, therefore, so, otherwise, for this reason, under the circumstances, consequently, as a consequence, as a result
Cause - Reason	because (of), as, since, due to, owing to
Emphasis	in fact, as a matter of fact, actually, to tell you the truth, strangely enough

Expressions/phrases commonly used in story writing

It was too good to be true.
It was a sight for sore eyes.
I couldn't believe my eyes/luck.
As luck would have it ...
I was in/out of luck.
(Un)luckily ...
I breathed a sigh of relief.
I was out of breath.

My heart was beating furiously.
It made me jump.
I burst out laughing / into tears.
It was a real shock.
It was getting on my nerves.
It was the best/worst ever.
I was in a good/bad mood.
I was left speechless.

All of a sudden / suddenly ...
The next thing I knew ...
I was taken by surprise ...
To my surprise ...
(Un)fortunately ...
Without a doubt ...
Beyond any doubt ...
Without thinking ...

Round up

After a challenging workout adhering to her strict fitness regime, Sarah decided to reward herself with a delicate pastry. The weather was perfect for a leisurely stroll along the winding pathway through the park, so she decided to take advantage of the beautiful day. As she walked, she enjoyed the scenic view from the observation tower, imagining the entire city spread out before her. To complete her relaxing afternoon, she planned to use the shuttle service to explore the downtown area and its features, and discover new shops and restaurants.

chairlifts

slopes

courts

chalets

corporate

active

barren

ideal

Vocabulary & Grammar

1. Sandy is going on a(n) _____ to the Himalayas.
a. expedition b. voyage c. outing d. tour
2. The holiday resort _____ excellent restaurants and luxurious suites with a view of the sea.
a. indicates b. appears c. features d. attracts
3. The shipping company announced the _____ of two new ships.
a. purchase b. priority c. reservation d. owning
4. I think our last phone _____ was unusually high.
a. fee b. fare c. payment d. bill
5. Alex bought a(n) _____ flat in the city centre.
a. spacious b. absolute c. lonely d. barren
6. Jack _____ burst into the room while I was wrapping his birthday present.
a. luckily b. suddenly c. finally d. naturally
7. The _____ of the village have an interesting custom; on 1st May they collect white flowers from the mountains.
a. visitors b. passengers c. inhabitants d. tourists
8. Brendan is feeling more _____ about the future since he got a promotion at work.
a. optimistic b. pessimistic c. tired d. bored

1. I / leave / house / I / realise / I / not take / my sunglasses

after

After I (had) left the house, I realised that I hadn't taken my sunglasses.

2. Ben / get / home / he / turn on / TV

as soon as

As soon as Ben got home, he turned on the TV.

3. bus / leave / we / arrive / station

by the time

By the time we arrived at the station, the bus had left.

4. Kate / swim / sea / she / see / octopus

while

While Kate was swimming in the sea, she saw an octopus.

5. children / swim / pool / suddenly / it / start / raining

when

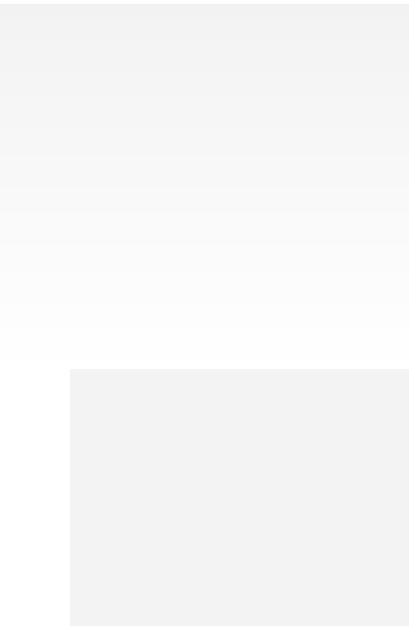

The children were swimming in the pool when suddenly it started raining.

a memorable day in

TOKYO

Last year, I (1) _____ (go) to Tokyo on a business trip and (2) _____ (decide) to take a tour of the city. I (3) _____ (admire) impressive skyscrapers, (4) _____ (visit) ancient temples and (5) _____ (wander) through gardens. I (6) _____ (admire) the city for several hours when I (7) _____ (bump) into an old school friend who now works in Tokyo. My friend told me that I was very lucky to be in Tokyo during that week in spring because the Japanese (8) _____ (celebrate) the Cherry Blossom Festival. She (9) _____ (go) to the Imperial Palace gardens to admire the blossoms so she (10) _____ (ask) me to go along. When we (11) _____ (arrive), we saw that many people (12) _____ (already / gather) there to celebrate the event. As she (13) _____ (bring) a picnic lunch, we (14) _____ (sit) down on the grass to eat. We (15) _____ (watch) as the small round flowers (16) _____ (drop) from the trees onto the ground, surrounding us in a carpet of pink. Later, we (17) _____ (go) for a walk around the Imperial Palace. It was a truly unforgettable day.

Listening

Oral Exam

You are all tourists from different countries. Imagine you have visited many tourist attractions both in your home country and abroad. Share your experiences:

1. Describe a memorable place you visited.
2. Talk about what you did there during your holiday.
3. Do you prefer traveling alone or with others? Explain your preference.